LOCAL RUMOURS AND ALLEGED SIGHTINGS

THE TALKING THICKET

Children in Fishbourne heard a polite lion voice say 'do not run'. A second voice shouted 'rosemary!' and a third whispered 'move the gnome'. Nobody saw a fox.

THE GNOME SHUFFLE

Seven garden gnomes woke in different gardens. One had travelled two entire streets and was wearing a feather. All looked innocent, especially the guilty one.

THE RYDE SPLASH TAG

A splash near Ryde became a chase with the Sea Serpent. The lion dodged, the goat watched shore and the snake tail declared itself referee and winner.

THE FISHBOURNE DANCE

At a village gathering, a glowing mane kept rhythm while the goat wore flowers and the tail danced two beats ahead. Three witnesses blamed the fairy cakes.

paw + cloven hoof + green scale = one impossible body
